Washington State Rated Elementary Chess Tournament

This chess tournament is for elementary students in grades K-5 and will consist of 5 rounds of games followed by an award ceremony.

Individuals of all levels are welcome. Come compete and cheer on your school! Team trophies will be awarded for the top 3 schools (top 4 scores from each school are counted towards the team scores). All kindergartners, first-time tournament participants and 3+ point winners will receive an award. Players who receive 3 or more points will also qualify for the WA State Elementary Chess Championship Tournament happening on April 21, 2018 (registering for the State tournament is still required after qualifying). Participation in a chess club is not required.
