Spassky Champ

Have a new World Chess Champion, Boris Spassky won title with 12½-10½ over Tigran Petrosian. Plan to have games 17-23 in August issue.

EDITORS CORNER: The turnout at Strawberry Open was not large enough to cover the expenses and prize fund that was guaranteed. Several players have already donated some money to Marysville Jaycees to help make up the loss which comes to about $1,000.00. Donations to Marysville Jaycees are tax deductible. If you would like to send them a check big or small make it out to Marysville Jaycees and mail to Jerry Larkin, 5006-89th Place N.E., Marysville, WA 98270. "If there is to be another Strawberry Open, it will have to be at least partially underwritten by chess players themselves," says Jerry Larkin. The Strawberry Open was a fine event, as good as any other held in USA. Isaac Kashdan said, "He couldn't understand why there were not 100 Northwest players at this years Strawberry Open. The format and prize fund was excellent, and it is beyond him why NW players didn't turnout in droves." For there to be another Strawberry Open there will have to be advanced Northwest support. One way to show this support will be for Northwest Chess readers to send Marysville Jaycees a check to help cover this years loss. Marysville Jaycees put a lot of work into the event and it was a big league event. The man power is there to do it again but most of this years loss must be covered before next year can be thought of. You should have seen all the trophies there were in the Reserve section, not little ones but great big ones.

Braley Tops Tacoma Event

TACOMA CENTENNIAL

The Tacoma Centennial was by all standards one of the years best. The playing room was on the tenth floor of the Winthrop Hotel and afforded a good view of the city if one ever found time to peer out of the window. There was adequate room and the ballroom could have held fifty or so more players. The only drawback was the lighting which was rather dim at night and was the cause of some concern.

John Braley of Seattle took this tournament with a seldom seen perfect score. John, who just recently returned to tournament chess after an absence of about three years, placed two full points over most of the field except for second place finisher Gary Holmquist (5-1). John took sole possession of first and $90.00 plus the $20.00 perfect score prize when he won one the most exciting games in recent months over Peter Biyiasas of Vancouver, B.C. After that game John said that he would have accepted a draw if it had been offered before the outcome became clear.

Braley plans to enter other tournaments this year and maintain a "mid-master" rating (2300 John?).

Gary won $45.00 for his effort. He played quite well and was without a loss, having draws with McCormick and Seglins. Gary lives in Bellingham.

Eight people tied for third through tenth all with a 4 wins and 2 losses score. James McCormick, Viesturs Seglins, Peter Biyiasas, Dave Williams, Antone Wallock, Angus Pitt, Frank Alexandro, and David Shapiro were each awarded $10.60.

Vincent Hikida, Auburn, had a fine 5½-½ record which was good enough for first place in the "B" section. He won a trophy and a chess set. Ronald Cotton placed second on a close tie-break over Ron Jarmon (solokoff 20.5 to 20). John Edmiston took top "C" and Lowery Short was top "D and Unrated".

Time control was 50 in 2 in the Championship section and 40 in 1½ for the "B" section. Tim Kauppila directed both sections with a helpful and much appreciated assist from Russell Miller. Ted Day also assisted.

See you next year at the Evergreen Empire Open! 4

Evans & Addison Top Strawberry

Current U.S. Chess Champion International Grandmaster, Larry Evans and International Master William Addison tied for 1st place in 2nd Annual Strawberry Open, Championship Section. They took home $800.00 each for their efforts. Their game was a 16 move draw. Evans opponents held him to adjournment three times, no one did this to Addison. Peter Biyiasis won top Junior prize. Ray Kerr took home top foreign entry award. John Braley and Viesturs Seglins split the expert prize. Lee Baldwin and Pat Hossen were top Class "A" finishers. Ray Ervin and Ted Day copped the Class "B" prize. Vincent Mooney won Class "C".

21 players were rated 2000 and above. Northwest Ratings were used for pairings and prizes if player had one, USCF if not. Only one player from outside Northwest who played last year returned, Larry Evans. This was not what the organizers had counted on.

William Bills who finished 5th is a former Washington player. He won Washington Championship in 1954. David Blohm is current California State Champion.

Play took place in Marysville Community Center. It was quite warm for several of the rounds for the heating unit worked this year and if fans were turned on they blew hot air. Last year heating unit did not work and turning fans helped cool area but made it noisy. The little league games on field next door drew the attention of a number of players when it was not their move.

Tournament Director Isaac Kashdan ran things in a little different manner from what Northwest players were used to. Two differences were, 6th round pairing he considered the two players with 4½ a group and brought the top rated players with 4 up to play the 4½. Also he does not call the fall of the flag and a player to claim a game on time forfeit must present a correct score sheet. Check marks may be made during time pressure in place of writing down moves.

John Walker and Peter Biyiasis tied for 1st in only speed tournament held.

This report was written by NWC Editor Russell Miller. Hope to have for August issue one by tournament director Isaac Kashdan

Danny Kopec 15 year old high school student won 2nd Annual Sunfair Open on tie-break over Alan Ludgate. They took home $45.00 each. Tim Kauppila WCF Tournament Director took Class "A" book prizes and other 5-2 scores got $8.33. Sam McKibbin won Class "B" while Bob Binschoff Eric Ahlm and Wellens split "C". Kopec, Gary Cornell, Mike Moutchalain, Jon Berry and Ahlm are attending Math Institute at Whitman College this summer. Dr. Vic Kaiser brought them up from Walla Walla to play in Sunfair. Russell Miller directed the event. Kopec is 4th highest rated USCF player under 16 according to June Chess Life. Play took place in Cascade Gas Auditorium. Just as 1st round was getting started a Yakima police man came into the room. He said, "Someone had called in a report that something suspicious was going on here." I told him it was a chess tournament. He said, "You don't look to suspicious."

B. C. BULLETIN

By Bob Eldridge

BCCF ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

The Annual Meeting for 1969 was called at the Renfrew Community Center. It was hoped that holding it at a public place might draw some of the people who never attend. What a hope! It turned out to be even smaller than usual, though there were a few fresh faces.

It was reported that no answer had been received from Buz Eddy about a possible Washington vs British Columbia match. Bob Eldridge mentioned that he had received a note from Willie Skubi asking for a contact in Victoria with whom he might be able to arrange a match between a few Seattle players and some from Victoria, the ones from Seattle coming up for the day on the Princess Marguerite - Bob referred him to Ray Kerr.

It was mentioned also that if there was to be no match, BCCF should try to avoid arranging a tournament which clashes with the Peace Arch Open - but we could not find a scheduled date for the PCO in NWC.

Ray Kerr and Peter Biylasas will each be given $200 to defray their expenses to play in the 1969 Canadian Closed.

Peter Biylasas was presented with a new and much more impressive B.C. Championship Trophy, donated by Russ Vogler. There was some discussion on whether the old trophy should be enshrined in some way, but it sort of faded out.

There was considerable discussion on the fact that there was no inter-club team tournament in 68/69. Russ pointed out that only two clubs were interested in competing (Burnaby and New Westminster) when all were approached.

Russ - would you mind sending me the digest of statistics on competing players in BC events as I think there may be some interesting things there which should go on record. That sort of thing helps organizers find the way to build better tournament participation.

Junior tournaments during the year had from 22 to 59 participants.

There was a lot of discussion about the best way to handle the B C Chess Bulletin. We went all the way from copies mailed to individual members, through copies distributed through clubs, joining the NWC arrangement, to maybe asking WFC if they could arrange a special quarterly to include all B C members, and it ended up (I think) by leaving it to Russ Vogler to figure it out (he being the new editor).

Victoria will probably put on a South Vancouver Island Open, and Nanaimo plans a North Vancouver Island Open for the first weekend in May.

Kelowna would like to organize a tournament on a 3-day weekend.

The tournament committee will have to find or make a specific rule to cover residential eligibility for the B.C. Championship - how long does one have to live in B.C. before he becomes a bona fide resident?

Up to $1 per registered member will be refunded to out-of-town regions for travelling expenses for regional qualifiers to attend the B.C. Championship.

Bill Rayner was given a special round of applause for the greater-than-ever publicity chess has received this year in the newspapers in Vancouver, and Ray Kerr (Victoria), Wayne Crookes (B.C. Bulletin) and Bob Eldridge (NWC) were also thanked for their efforts along the same line.

The retiring chairman/president (or so he thought!) figured we had had a pretty good year as far as activity was concerned, although he was disturbed that there weren't more workers in proportion to the number of players.

It looks like we may have a Rules Sub-committee within the Tournament Committee. Duncan Suttles brought up the matter of a better set of rules for pairings. One of the things that bugs him is that it is unfair to two players in a lead group of three if the third lead player is paired with a "middle" player of the second group rather than a "top" player of the second group. He also wants to find a way to make it more difficult to win a game on time; because clocks are not super-accurate, or even matched to each other, he considers a win on time is only a technical win. At the same time he does not like the Buz Eddy rule. This is a good subject for debate, and it's a good job I am not on the BCCF Tournament Committee - they would probably never get through a meeting! This column is open to discussion on any of the rules, and of the philosophy behind the rules, and I promise equal space to anyone who wishes it on the subject.

After that digression better get back to the Annual Meeting (of which by the way this is just my own report of the goings-on - not an official record).

DAVE WHITE was argued into the presidency for another year, and most of the appointments and elected officers are about the same as last year, except that Mike Potoma is out at his own request and Gordon Leask has swum into the hierarchy as Tournament Director. Duncan Suttles was talked into becoming a Governor of CFC.

The Tournament Committee will get down to arranging dates for coming tournaments as soon as possible, and have a thorny problem to solve in finding a formula which will give Interior and Northern region players something to play for, while at the same time ensuring a good Round Robin tournament for the B.C. Championship. This is a difficult problem to resolve - how to be fair to the contenders for the championship and at the same time promote active chess at all levels of performance.

George Bryant, 1337 The Crescent, Vancouver 9, continues as Secretary/Treasurer (surprise! surprise!) and is the point of contact for any mail enquiries from the millions of people not lucky enough to live in British Columbia.

From my point of view, the thing which has given me most pleasure this year has been the excellent and consistent reporting to this column by Russ Vogler. He has even prepared most of the material ready for printing, including a pile of games from the B.C. Championship which you will be seeing shortly. Thank you Russ. And over to you Gordon!!

DRAW BY REPETITION

A couple of points occur to me in connection with Harry Glidden's discussion of the draw on page 9 of the June issue.

1. Not only must the position be the same, but in each case it must have been the same player's turn to move.

2. As long as the position is the same, it is not necessary to prove that each piece is in the same position it was before. For example if the rooks have been moving around, and the QR has ended up where the KR was and vice versa, the position can still be the same.

The discussion on page 15 of the same issue points up the importance of knowing how to call for a draw and exactly when.

In some situations the completion of a move is held to be only at the time the button of the clock has been pressed. But in the case of a player proposing a draw this is not so. "A proposal to draw may be made by a player only at the moment when he has just made a move..." means...."Move the pawn or piece - propose the draw - start the opponent's clock - say nothing more".

RULES OF CHESS

Martin Morrison says the rules are vague and few. I don't think this is true. Most of the rules are now quite explicit, and when the FIDE interpretations are published (each time there is an appeal against a decision in an international tournament) there is one thing which seems to be to be consistent about the rulings. They try to see that moral justice has been done, even if it then means that the legalistic or technical interpretation of the rule has been upset.

Isn't this what rules are for? Don't we all object when a criminal gets away with his crime because of some technical point proved up by the defence which doesn't deny the bad thing was done, but points out that because of some loophole in the law the criminal is "technically not guilty"? Such a ruling when appealed to a higher court will sometimes be reversed, because the intent of the law is to see that true justice is done.

One thing that I do find deplorable about FIDE rules is the evasive attitude towards the rule which says a player must score his moves.

If a player gets into time trouble it is his own fault, and he should not be excused from the chore of scoring his moves as they are made.

To come back to the matter of the draw, and the proposal for one, it would not be sensible in the case of the Schutt - Blohm affair for a ruling to be given that because the offer of a draw was made at a time when an offer was not valid, the whole thing should be forgotten. It could not be said to be distraction or annoyance, so a player would be free to make his own intention or desire known without committing himself to a draw, as long as he made the offer at an illegal time. This would be ridiculous.

The process of thought has to be something like this when the director is making his decision. "Why did Mr. Schutt ask this question? If the answer was yes, would he agree on the spot?" If the director considers that this is a reasonable assumption, he has to consider that a feeler for a draw has been put out, and feelers have always carried with them the penalty of being considered offers.

Let's have more discussion of the rules in NWC. If everyone had a complete understanding of the rules there would not be much room for dispute. But don't let's encourage people to win lost games by finding a rule which fits the case, against all the tenets of moral justice.

VINCE SKABEIKIS BURNABY CLUB CHAMPION

I called in to the Burnaby Chess Club one Thursday evening, so happened to be on hand when Roy Sneath presented the trophy to Vince Skabeikis, first Club Champion of the Burnaby Chess Club.

The club meets Thursdays at the Wesburn Community Centre, a few blocks north of Central Park on Patterson.

"GRANDMASTER GELLER AT THE CHESSBOARD"

There are some interesting observations in this new book published by The Chess Player. It is a translation of Geller's autobiography, originally published in Russian for Russians (or should I say for all Soviet readers?)

Some of the comments need to be read in this context! For example:

"Business is obviously the motive force behind the American way of life; wherever you go you see adverts 'Buy this. Only we have got it. The best there is!' and so on. The main thing is to make money. Dollarmania impinges on chess players just as on everyone else. Thus several days before the match we were very put out by an article appearing above Reshevsky's signature. It contained various attacks on our players and surprised us as Reshevsky had been in the Soviet Union on a number of occasions and had always had good relations with our players. However, the mystery was soon solved. It turned out that he had not written the article, had not even read it but had merely, as a good businessman, sold his signature to it for a goodly sum. The rest didn't interest him...."

But others are deserving of some serious thought, indicative of the Soviet approach to the serious business of chess:

"As soon as we got to know the composition of the Argentine team we each had assigned to us a particular opponent. Thus, for example, Averbach was given a set of game scores giving the recent games played by Panno, i.e. over the last two years.

Averbach analysed them, drew his conclusions about his play, and summarised these in writing. When this was done, he made a report at a general meeting of the team. After a general discussion, correcting some points and supplementing others, a file was drawn up on Panno which represented our joint opinion on him. Such files were compiled on all future opponents.

Normally such a dossier looks like this: GM Oscar Panno. 24 yrs old, former Junior World Champion. Argentinian Champion in 1953, prizewinner in a number of South American tournaments. With White he plays only d2-d4. Against the King's Indian he adopts such and such a line, against the Nimzo-Indian the following lines, and so on. Defends against the QP by the Slav. Plays best in simple positions. Plays attacks quite well. Doesn't defend so well. In playing Soviet opponents he will be careful in the opening, probably somewhat passive. Therefore it is recommended to play sharp opening lines against him and go in for complications.

The benefits of such a system can easily be seen. When we get to Argentina and we get to know who our individual opponents are to be, then instead of having to work through a large number of games it is enough merely to go through a dossier consisting of only a couple of printed sheets."

There's plenty of food for thought in this book, apart from the 86 games in it, many of them deeply annotated, some by Geller, and most by various Soviet analysts. It covers his career up to 1962, the date of the first publication of the book in Odessa.

OREGON CHESS NEWS

By HARRY GLIDDEN

MONTCHALIN WINS H. S.

MIKE MONTCHALIN repeated his last year performance to retain the title, "Ore. State High School Individual Champion '69-70", at the tournament held 7 & 8 June in the new YMCA building at Medford.

Montchalin with his clean sweep victory captured the U. S. National Bank, Medford Branches, $50 Scholarship for the second year in a row. Mike also received a 1st place High School trophy this year.

Although the final score makes Mike's victory look like a walk away, that was not the case. Montchalin's first round was the only true softy; a young 5th grader in his second regulation tournament. From then on The Champion's work was cut out for him.

Four of his opponents scored 4-2. Three of them lost only to Montchalin and each other. Montchalin is a 10th grader from Clackamas High School in Portland.

David Mitchell, 10th grader at Klamath Falls Union High School, won 2nd place and a $25 U. S. Savings Bond as well as the 2nd place High School trophy. His only loss was to Montchalin in the 5th round. The only easy game for David was also in the 1st round against a 9 year old and future champion, Steven Bigham.

A new name, DeWayne DERRYBERRY, climbed into third place. Watch for him in future tournaments. DeWayne also scored 5-0 to make it a games-won tie for overall 2nd & 3rd. We went through the motions of setting up a speed game playoff for the two overall prizes of U. S. Savings Bonds. The dawn came, when we realized it would be a waste of time as both overall prizes were the same and it had been established all trophies would be awarded by tie-breaker points. So-o-o, Derryberry took the 1st place Junior High trophy and a $25 U. S. Savings Bond for 3rd place overall.

Derryberry is a 9th grader at Western View Junior High School in Corvallis. Third place Senior High trophy went to Doug Shafer of Klamath Falls.

The other Junior High trophies went to: Philip McCready and Dave Jones, 2nd & 3rd respectively. Both boys are from Cascade Jr. High School in Eugene.

James Bricher, a 6th grader from Our Lady of Perpetual Help at Cottage Grove, won 1st place grade school trophy. Mr. Bricher played five games against High and Jr. High students, giving them a very rough time. A little more tournament practice in the home area will give James the practice he needs for top flight play. His opponents say he is doing it now.

Rollo Wood, unrated 5th grader, of Mae Richardson Elementary in Central Point won a startling upset when he defeated Robert Lynch, High School Senior rated 1622, in round three. Rollo really showed marked improvement over his former tries. His only losses were to high school students. Wood captured 2nd place Grade School trophy.

David Sletten a 6th grade schoolmate of Rollo Wood, carried off the 3rd place Grade School trophy. Wood edged David out of 2nd by $\frac{1}{2}$ tie-breaker point. Sletten also showed his progress in chess with an upset victory in round six.

Western View Jr. High School carried off the overall School Trophy with a score of 18 $\frac{1}{2}$ wins. This prize was a closely fought race. Through round four it looked like a Klamath Union High win but in round five the individual contest element of the event pushed Western View ahead. Even then the individual pairings of round

6 made a Klamath recovery appear a sure thing. Then the little Giant Killer, David Sletten, made his presence known. Sletten knocked off Mike Goakey of Klamath to restrict their total win to 18. Gunderson's draw in that round lost a tie, for speed playoff, for Klamath and Jeff Washburn who had been showing up as a Sleeper till round six, ran into a determined Philip McCready and lost. Ashland Senior High placed 3rd as a team with 16 $\frac{1}{2}$ wins. Cascade Junior High scored 15 wins with a four man team. Mae Richardson Elem. School, with a full 5 man team, scored 13 wins. All five of these schools received a year's subscription to the NW Chess magazine and an OCF membership. Where the school had a membership in force their expiration date was extended one more year.

North Albany Junior High School had advance registered a four man team but an accident interfered with one of the players making the trip. Trust that boy is OK by now. (Hey! I still have his $3 entry fee to be returned; but no address, not even a name. His name was on the check the school sent and I did not copy it before sending to the bank. With school closed for the summer I do not even have the home address of Mr. Asa R. Daily, the faculty sponsor. If anyone reading this can supply any of the above info please slip me the dope fellows. I might forget and spend this hot money this hot summer.) No. Albany's three boys did well for a first regulation tournament try; scored 7 wins.

The Jackson County Championship was won by Robert Lynch of Ashland Senior High School, who settled down to serious chess after his upset defeat in round three and went the last three rounds winning three straight. Kurk Davies and Lynch, both from Ashland, tied in games won for this award. This was the only speed chess game required at the tournament. The two boys played 30/30 chess to settle this award. In the playoff game Lynch accomplished checkmate on the 31st move with a Queen's Gambit, not accepted, opening and time to spare. John Haselden of Eagle Point High School stood out as showing the greatest improvement in his chess since his last tournament try; against tougher competition. He defeated two 1700 players and tied with a third. The most outstanding upset during the event, from the standpoint of planned play without the luck of goofs, was Haselden's win over James Bricker in round five. In recognition of his marked improvement Haselden received a special award of one year's membership in the USCF with Chess Life magazine.

Two girls, Candy and Roanne Alexander, competed in this year's event. The first girls to enter in three years. They found the going very rough but fought hard for the full six rounds. Both girls said they were going to work at improving their chess this coming year to do better next year.

Some High and Jr. High School players were off guard when paired against grade school players and woke up to the younger player's ability too late to save their games. Despite some of these discouraging turns there were no drop-outs during the event. They all came for chess experience and stayed through the final moves. Co-sponsors for this event were: U. S. National Bank, Medford Branches - $50 Scholarship; Ralph's Appliance, Medford - Jackson County Championship Award; Medford Hotel - one of the U. S. Savings Bonds; The Argus newspaper of Hillsboro - $10 cash; The Medford YMCA - furnished playing space free of charge; Medford Parks and Recreation Department - produced mail flyers and game record sheets; Don't forget Deane Moore, the tournament director, who came to Medford at his own expense and did a fine job. Moore received some excellent assistance from Karl Cox, a So. Ore. College Student and ex-Phoenix High chess team member.

For those interested the total overall cost of promoting and holding this event was $326.97. Donations by Co-sponsors amounted to $164.20. Entry fees totaled $120. You can put one on for a lot less if you restrict the mail advertising, prizes and the quality of the trophies.

SPECIAL NOTICE: A heavy majority of those entered in this year's championship tournament expressed their desire that next year the event be held on the weekend immediately after the close of schools. Barring some outstanding conflict it will be so done.

Next year Oregon Chess Federation membership by the school represented or the individual entrant WILL BE REQUIRED.

ORE.-WASH. H. S. CHESS TEAM TOURNAMENT DATE CHANGED?

by Pat Maloney

June 9; I am happy to add to the list of schools that will participate in the Ore.-Wash. High School Chess Team Tournament. Clackamas, Marshall and Willamette have advised they will come. That makes five teams scheduled from Oregon as David Douglas and Hillsboro already said they would participate.

I ran into some negative response from Corvallis. They gave two reasons: #1. They thought the Oregon State High School Chess Team playoffs should be the end for all chess teams concerned in a given year. For Corvallis the Nationals don't exist! #2. Their team would be scattered to the four winds during the summer months. The #2 reason is a good excuse for not participating for schools so effected but Corvallis does not seem to want any school teams to take part. It appears they would like to squelch any tournament they can not attend even if it is for improvement of chess throughout the state and Northwest. I realize Corvallis' refusal to participate weakens Oregon's chances in such an event but this gives us a chance to prove our skill. What would happen if Oregon schools defeated Washington teams without our #1 state team.

I was informed by Mr. Leverenz, David Douglas faculty sponsor, that the use of their library hangs in the balance. If the David Douglas bond issue fails on June 9 it will be no deal; if it passes we can use it. I talked this problem over with Deane Moore and Clark Harmon. Clark said if the YMCA was used we would have to pay a rental fee. Deane is going to see if he can help with the school use deal.

(Ed. Note: In more of the above letter Pat was expecting some help from Dave Jones of Willamette HS in Eugene but as you will see elsewhere in this issue that did not work out.)

I am sad Oregon won't be going united into this Inter-State tournament but if this experiment is successful its only one more step to getting the Northwest represented at the National Chess Team Championship.

June 23; Mr. Leverenz told me Saturday we can hold the Ore.-Wash. team tournament at David Douglas. There is one problem. We can only use the school on weekdays. I took the chance of changing dates and asked that Mr. Leverenz sign up for July 24 & 25, Thursday & Friday. Your idea of a Zonal setup throughout the United States is great. Maybe the four federations immediately involved can go ahead and setup our zone as an example, hoping the rest will follow. We might be able to promote that the National be held in the Midwest somewhere for better availability to everyone.

Washington and Oregon and any other High School Chess Teams interested in entering this Inter-State Chess Team tournament write at once to Pat Maloney, Rt. #1 Box 50, Cornelius, Or. 97113 or Phone me at 645-1223 (area code 503). You can write or phone the Ore. Editor.

Ed. Note: If because of the Eugene July event you would be interested in an August or September - before regular school chess season start - date for this event let one or both of us know. Everyone who reads this magazine and is interested in a Zonal HS Chess Team event next year write this editor as soon as possible. Give your suggestions as to procedure, financing, ect. If your state or dominion has only one or two high schools with chess teams, but you are interested get in your word now. It takes a lot of ground work preparation and publicity for such an event.

JUNE

The Ore.-Wash. Inter-State High School Chess Team event had been set up to be held on July 24 & 25. On June 25th I received a phone call from Bill Jones of Eugene with the exciting news that various businesses in Eugene were sponsoring a youth chess event to be held the 25th & 26th of July. The phone news was very good to hear since that area of the state has not previously held anything approaching such an event. I advised Mr. Jones however, that the Inter-State team tourney would conflict with these dates. In the phone conversation we agreed the Eugene event was important and the offer of backing from business people had to be taken advantage of when it was offered. The reason for these dates was to tie the tournament in with the celebration, EUGENE EXPOSITION which runs that week throughout the city. On June 28th a letter was received from Mr. Jones which reads in part: "---- I called Mr. Leverenz in Portland (the director of David Douglas chess team) and he said he would notify as many kids as he could and would also cancel or change the date for the chess tournament they had scheduled. He was quite excited over this deal in Eugene. I hope the players up there are also. I may have made a mistake but ----". The idea of an Ore.-Wash. Inter-State tournament was first presented to me in March during the Oregon State HS Chess Team playoffs by Pat Maloney of Hillsboro High School. It was first publicized in the May issue of NW Chess. I will have to admit that when it was first presented I understood it was being projected for 1970. That is why it was not in the April issue. The next communication on this subject was to try for at least a trial run this year. Maloney went to some effort (lots of work) to line up some school teams both from Oregon and Washington. There was also some difficulty in lining up a place to hold the event. On the Oregon side of the idea all was cleared up and six school teams had committed themselves to compete. (Burns High School is the sixth team and not mentioned in the article by Maloney.

However the Washington end of this tournament does not appear to have jelled very well. Only one school team expressed any interest (to my knowledge). Despite this I feel the Inter-State event did have seniority. I trust the young people (Maloney and those that were helping him) will understand that even though this does appear an undercut of their efforts, all concerned hope they will not give up the idea. If you should pick a change in dates be sure to get your word in as early as possible.

To sort of ease the drop; here is another part of Howie Chin's letter, "---- Using Washington prep teams during the summer for tourneys is fine with me. However there are two problems with it which I have discussed with others: 1. Some students work and cannot attend --- some have moved ----. 2. The consent of the respective schools would be missing and this would make representation of the teams unofficial. If a principal would consent, his school would be responsible for the student welfare and I doubt if faculty coaches would wish to attend in order to supervise and thus secure the student welfare."

(Ed. Note: Personally I can not go for this. It is a continuation of wanting someone else to do it for you. Parents and other adults interested in chess should take on the responsibility for out of school events. It is hard enough to get teachers for chess during school.) Well that is the way things stand at this writing and although I do not like the apparent disregard for the efforts of the youth themselves who worked to set up the Inter-State event I have to go along. Eugene does need the chess activity. The business men have indicated they will make it an annual affair.

HIGH SCHOOL CHESS TEAM ZONAL

The Northwest Zonal Chess Tournament for high school teams received another favorable vote from Howie Chin. Howie writes: "The Zonal idea, I think, is terrific. A NW Zonal tourney for the (qualification for the) Nat'l H. S. Championship is excellent since the champion team would receive funds from Zonal tourney fees to go to the Nat'l tourney. Then, we (NW) could show the East our strength. Let's play with idea a bit more. I think the Zonal should include Oregon, Washington and Idaho prep schools." Howie. This editor thinks British Columbia might well be included.

There is one little matter some of the young folks have overlooked. The National High School Team Tournament requires USCF membership of all individuals. This however should not present too much of a problem. This editor also believes the zonal event should be a TRUE TEAM tournament with the idea of eventually having the National restricted to the same type competition.

ADJUDICATION QUESTION JUNE ISSUE

There was only one answer to my question about the position for adjudication in the June issue. That came from Washington. I will not give his or my answer till next month. Unless some of the chess brains tackle it before I will not give my reasons till after school opens in the fall.

THANK YOU

To the numerous people who attended the last two big tournaments in So. Oregon; the Ore. HS team playoffs and the Ore. HS Individual championship event; who took the time to write me letters about those events. I am pretty busy at this particular time so have not been free to write each of you to thank you for your kind words. I do note and appreciate them.

Vandenburg Again

For the umpteenth year in a row, Dick Vandenburg has won the Boise club championship but this year didn't have a perfect score as 5th place, Max Wennstrom, nicked him for a draw. John Cosho, who doesn't play in the tournament every year, won all his games prior to the championship contest except one and came into that last game only ½ point behind the leader. However, an inverted "Cosho" attack by Vandenburg proved his downfall. (John is noted, locally, for his wide open king's side attack which is labeled the Cosho attack) Nick Skirmants played very steady chess losing only to the leaders and John Myers in placing 3rd, 7-3. Rasor and Gregg actually tied for 7th while the tie between Wennstrom and McLaws was broken by S.B. points.

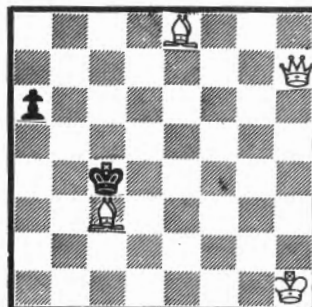

Boise - Twin Falls

The Boise Chess Club won a match recently from the Twin Falls Chess Club by the close score of 11-9. The match was played in Glenns Ferry, a point half way between the two towns. Twin Falls did well on the top three boards scoring 4-2 but from there on it was all Boise except for the double win by Delmar Davies. Boise had three double winners - Nick Skirmants, Fred Wagner, and John Myers. Dan Carr, who played for Boise, was actually from Twin Falls but Boise was short two players. John Hartwell (Ted's son) also accompanied the team but didn't have an opponent and played Dick Vandenburg a side match. Twin Falls was defending match champion.

This month we have another lightweight miniature. If you had a similar position in a real game do you think you could come up with a solution using 15 to 30 minutes on your clock?

You will notice that Esther Schrader is now taking over the "Problem Corner" and we wish her the best and hope all you solvers will continue the support for the column you have shown thus far. It appears that the time I have to spend on chess will be best spent working in Idaho since we have only a small group of players and need to expand and promote as much as possible. Our Idaho news will continue to appear regularly in NWC.

Our usually fine group successfully solved No. 5 and they are CHARLES BALLANTINE (5), RON COTTON (5), JOHN LANGSDORF (3), JACK SCHRADER (5), PHILIP MCCREADY (1), CHET HOSTICK (1)(Oregon; DAN ROGERS (3)(Montana); JERRY WEIKEL (5)(Calif.); TED DINGUS (0), NATALIE HOLDEN (5), RON JARMON (4), DICK PARSONS (4), MEL HORMAN(5), HORTON THOMPSON (5), BEN FOREMAN BEN FOREMAN (1), VICTOR KEISER(5), ROBERT RUOTSALAINEN (5), JEFF THORSON (5), J.D. MILLER (3), LARRY PRATT (5), and RICH HANLEN (4)(Washington). The way many of you are going, MEL HORMAN won't be alone this year with a perfect score. Keep up the good work! The correct answer to No. 5 (as if anyone needs it) is _____ B-K3!

Howie Chin won Seattle U's Champion titl in a close match with David Halleck of Lake Sammamish; the score was;

Postal Chess League

BY JOHN R. WARD

3909 N. 34th St. #7

TACOMA, WA 98407

In spite of a rather large amount of game reports, there was only one promotion this month that being, Mel Leonard, who moved into Class B. There were several demotions but we won't go into that. Five new members joined this month all in Class C. Carl Granat of Hillsboro, Oregon; Mark Casperson of Clakamas, Oregon; Pat Maloney of Cornelius, Oregon; Bruce Johnson of Tigard, Oregon; and Mark Erickson of Vancouver, Washington. Some of you have already started your sections and the rest of you will start very soon, or probably will by the time you receive this.

We wish to take note of another milestone tho, as we see that Fred Schmidt cracked the 2000 point mark, and is a definite threat to our long time leaders, Richard Schultz and Oliver Morris. Incidentally Mr. Schultz has been waiting for some of you AA players to sign up for a new section since April. If we do not get some response soon, we will do away with this double A section and incorporate it with Class A, so that sections can be formed more promptly. So get with it if you want to keep the double A Section.

Postal Chess costs you 50¢ per section and new sections are forming, however slowly, all the time. You can join in classes A (Strong) B (Intermediate) or C (Beginners & experimenters and are invited to do so. Money must be sent to your director at the above address, and we welcome you to play Postal Chess with other NW players in our small league. A section consists of 4 players each playing 2 games with the others. Send in $1 and try a couple sections. Complete rules and instructions will be sent to you along with your opponent's names and addresses. We have players now waiting in all classes for their sections to be formed. Winners of these sections receive a free section or a three month extension of Northwest Chess. Try a section or two this month.

We have a surplus of cash on hand, and would like to put it to use so are considering running a Junior Championship starting in October. We will make a definite commitment by the next issue, and give you the full particulars then. We also have several Ladies, on our list, so perhaps we could run a Women's Postal Championship also. Let's hear from you if you are interested.

Seattle Chess Club Notes

By Hardy

Larry Evans, U. S. Champion and International Grandmaster, gave a simultaneous demonstration at the Seattle Chess Club on June 21.

The Grandmaster, although on crutches due to a recent skiing accident, made the rounds quite effectively in the demonstration, and defeated fifteen of his sixteen opponents.

Joseph Toth, of Seattle, was the only one to win. When asked about his defeat, Mr. Evans commented with a smile, "He swindled me!"

The rest of the players who participated were: Ron Norman, Mike Parkas, Marvin Hayami, Ward Smith, Phil Geis, Leon Loge, Kent Pullen, Tim Kauppila, Billy Hamasaki, Pat Hessen, Fred Klein, Ole Miller, Les Cowan, Norm Hardy, and Robert Burns.

Afterwards, Mr. Evans awarded Joseph Toth a copy of his own book, "New Ideas in Chess." Then he autographed and sold eight copies for a dollar each to eight eager buyers.

The new location of the Chess Club is 617 South Jackson in Seattle. A pay phone has just been installed in the club to help lessen the financial problem. The phone number now: MA 3-9899.

The club hours now are the same as before:
Tuesday: 7:00 - 12:00 PM
Friday: 7:00 - 12:00 PM
Sunday: 1:00 - 6:00 PM

The top fifteen rated players on the Seattle Chess Club Perpetual Tournament are this month:

1 Tim Kauppila	1936
2 Gregg Smith	1860
3 Norm Hardy	1811
4 Svend Monrad	1776
5 Jimmy Bird	1775
6 Steven Christopher	1756
7 Fred Howard	1750
8 Bert Germalm	1691
9 William Davison	1689
10 Norman Abrahamson	1685
11 Frank Alexandro	1648
12 Max Mage	1639

High School in Chess

Western District Independents

The Western Independents have recorded a few scores. They are:

Mt. Vernon	3 - 7	Sedro Wooley
Mt. Vernon	4 - 2	Burlington
Bellingham	13½ - 4	Meridian

All but one team was in the Northwest League.

TACOMA (Pierce County) LEAGUE.

League Director Ron Jarmon says "We have made good progress this year even if the schedule was to long. Pierce High School Student Body paid for expenses of their team at the State Team Tournament. There is a faint hope their coach may receive pay. I maybe teaching a chess course." Four teams in league brought clocks.

FINAL STANDINGS

Auburn	8	2	0	Wilson	4	5	1
Franklin Pierce	8	2	0	Bellarmine	4	5	1
Enumclaw	7	3	0	Ch. Wright	3	7	0
Stadium	6	3	1	Mt. Tahoma	1	8	1
Lincoln	6	4	0	Lakes	1	9	0
Clover Park	5	5	0

Enumclaw finished with 7-3 score in her first year pf league play! There are only 13 graduating Seniors in the whole league. Franklin Pierce lost their first two matches. Keith Burrell is highest rated player in league. He is from Enumclaw. Mr. Jarmon put in a lot of time running this league and did a very fine job. He is to be congratulated

STATE TOURNAMENT RECALLS

Corrections: Pierce downed St. Martin's Prep 4-1 not 5-0 as reported.

Mr. Jarmon does not like the Swiss elimination system. My reason for using it were it knocks out the weak teams but keeps the strong ones. Swiss gives weak teams a chance to get easy points while mediocre teams may take points from fish teams, and "Queen Anne-type" teams maybe out scored because mediocre type teams preyed points off fish teams. The Swiss elimination eliminates the fish who might feed teh mediocres. A round-robin is really fairest, but is impractical with 11 teams and limited time. A team captain complained about the days upon which State Tournament was held. League directors chose teh date.
